Mrs. Lin has over 30 years of teaching experience. She has taught students from elementary school to college in Shanghai, China. She started teaching Chinese over 20 years ago while she was in Toronto, Canada. She was the vice principle of Northwest Chinese School in Bellevue which has over 1,500 students and is the largest Chinese school in the Northwest. While she was with Northwest Chinese School, she was in charge of teaching quality. She is passionate for teaching and loves every kid like they were her own.

Course will include: basic pronunciation and pinyin, numbers, colors, shapes, family members, animals, seasons, and other basic words and concepts for beginners (no prior knowledge of Mandarin). For advanced students, we will expound upon their basic skills and focus on having a conversation and basic reading and writing, building new vocabulary. For more details, contact Selina Lin.
